BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

W. J. Coulter's Store the Center of Attraction Monday Afternoon. The ladies of Bryan had been invited to a reception at the store of Mr. W. J. Coulter on Monday afternoon at which Miss Blanche Society and Sir Charles Patriot were to be the honorees of the occasion. The store was handsomely decorated for the affair and the elegant goods in endless variety, had been artistically arranged for the reception of the guests. A brimming punch bowl was placed in the rear of the store and over this two charming little ladies, Misses Madeline Hanway and Helen Demaret presided with elegant grace and dispensed the refreshing beverage to the great host of lady callers.

Miss Blanche Society, clad in a $500 gown and an elegant hat with sweeping plumes, was stationed near the punch bowl. Her costume was much admired by the ladies and in just the nicest way imaginable, she demonstrated to the callers the beauty, grace and elegance of "Society" shoes, manufactured by Robert, Johnson & Rand Shoe Company of St. Louis. Sir Charles Patriot stood near the front entrance and distributed advertising souvenirs.

CALLED A PASTOR.

Christian Church Extends Call to Rev. James N. Thomas of Haskell.

Rev. J. N. Thomas of Haskell, Texas, preached at the First Christian church in this city at both morning and evening services Sunday. At the morning hour his theme was "The Good Samaritan," and at the evening service he chose as a theme, "The Manhood of the Bible." Both sermons were said by those who heard them to be masterpieces and the congregations that heard him were charmed.

Immediately after the evening service a full meeting of the church board was held and Rev. Thomas was unanimously called as pastor of this church, and the call was accepted. Rev. Thomas will move to Bryan with his family, a wife and one child, within the next two weeks. Definite announcement can be made however, that he will be here to enter upon his work on Sunday, April 13th.

Rev. Thomas comes to Bryan well recommended as an earnest, consecrated man of God and will be given a cordial welcome by all the Christian people of Bryan. Mrs. Thomas is a lady of high culture and an enthusiastic church worker.

I will make two cars of good dry wood Monday and Tuesday. If you need wood, see John Smith or phone 339.
